A woman is delighted with nothing less than a diamond ring, but man is better satisfied with a dollar ring—when the dollar is coming his way.

The politician who expects to impress the people that he is honest and sincere in everything he does is in a position to make himself an easy mark for lightning before the campaign is over.

Of course it must be conceded in the face of our files that THE STAR was the original Park— But, then, some "rag" will claim that it has been for him all along because it kept "quiet" till the last.

The St. Louis platform enunciates the truth of history when it declares that "under the principles of the Democratic faith * * local self government and national unity and prosperity were alike established."

The conspicuous example set by the Republican party is a persistent set of principles that always give assurance of the open door of hope for monopoly and puts up the "standing room only" sign when competition applies for admittance.

Judge Parker made a narrow escape on Thursday. He goes every morning to the river to take a plunge and while in the act of diving, a camera fiend came very nearly getting his picture. The incident so upset him that he came very nearly "speaking out."

In New Jersey the other day a pretty young lady had a thrilling experience while gathering berries. She was almost squeezed to death by a big rattlesnake which wrapped itself about her knee. Where was the garter snake that he let the rattler get this scoop on him?

Gov. Heywood, of South Carolina, in his message to the Genral Assembly early in the year, spoke strongly against lynching, declaring that he would like to put a stop to it but he was powerless until some measure could be devised that will be effective in suppressing this kind of anarchy. A penitentiary big enough to hold all the negroes all the time might be a solution of the Governor's troubles.

The scriptures tell us that Lot's wife just had to look back to observe how well the fire was cleaning up Sodom, and for disobedience, the story goes, she turned to a pillar of salt. At St. Louis there are about 999 men to one woman in the hotels, which are over-running with the crowds attending the Democratic national convention. At the hotel where the North Carolina delegates are stopping some of the Tar Heels turned to rubber when a beautiful woman went forward to put her name on the register.

LOCAL DOTS.

— The Sunday evening services of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, which were discontinued last Sunday, will be resumed this evening.

— The United Charities Association (colored) will hold its quarterly meeting Thursday at 4 o'clock at Chesnut street Presbyterian church. All members are requested to attend.

— Norwood Everett, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $10 and costs or given 30 days on the roads by Justice of the Peace John J. Furlong yesterday, the case having been transferred from Justice Bornemann.

— The following building permits have been issued: Rogers & Thomas, two story frame dwelling for R. V. Leonard, on corner of Second and Church streets. William Anderson, three-room frame dwelling on 16th, between Dock and Orange streets.

— A horse attached to a delivery wagon of Mr. W. A. Vollers ran away on South Front street yesterday morning during rush market hours, causing a lot of excitement. Fortunately no serious damage resulted.

— Fayetteville Observer: "Col. W. S. Cook informs us that he has not entered into any arrangements with Columbia people for the transfer of the 'City of Fayetteville' from the Cape Fear to the Columbia run."

— Fayetteville Observer: "The Fayetteville base ball club will play the Wilmington club, at Wilmington, next Tuesday. We hope a great many of the Fayetteville people will go and take in the surf and the base ball game; round-trip tickets only $1.25."

— Prof. Washington Catlett calls attention to the fact that examination of applicants for teachers in the schools of New Hanover will be held this week at the Court House. White applicants will be examined on Thursday and colored on Friday. Also on Thursday an A. & M. entrance examination will be given.

— Street car No. 25, of the Consolidated Company, ran into a delivery wagon of W. E. Worth & Co., heavily loaded with ice, at Third and Princess streets last midnight. No serious damage resulted. The fender of the car was badly bent but the wagon appeared to be not damaged and was driven off by the colored driver.

— The game between the Wilmington and Lake Waccamaw teams at Hilton Park yesterday afternoon had to be called at the end of the second inning on account of rain. The score was 4 to 3 in favor of Wilmington. Council and Gwaltney composed the battery for the visiting team.

Cases Were Continued.

The participants in the early morning fracas on Princess street yesterday in which Grace George and Kate Jenkins were the principals, were before the Mayor at noon yesterday, but the cases were continued until Tuesday of this week in deference to the attorneys employed by the defendants who were busily engaged with other practice at the hour for the hearing. Herbert McClammy, Esq., will appear for the Jenkins woman and Messrs. Bellamy & Bellamy for Grace George. An additional warrant was sworn out yesterday for the last named, charging her with an assault with a deadly weapon upon Kate Jenkins during the fracas. The original warrant charged only disorderly conduct. A deer's foot and a beer schooner, the latter shattered to pieces, were the singular weapons found on the scene of the fight after the melee.

Handsome New Business Building.

It is announced that Messrs. Hall & Pearsall, incorporated, will in the near future erect a handsome, two-story, brick building on their property on the wharf, near the Waterland Depot. Arrangements are already under way for the new storehouse. It is learned that the firm will move its offices and salesrooms to the new building from its present quarters on Nutt street. The change will give Messrs. Hall & Pearsall the advantage of being near their extensive warehouses on the water front as well as providing larger and more adequate storage facilities.

Mr. MacRae's Letter.

Attention is called to the letter of Mr. Hugh MacRae to Mr. M. J. Heyer, which is printed on the third page of the STAR to-day. It will be read with interest by both the friends and opponents of the Dispensary. His temperate and conservative discussion of the question is worthy of commendation and might well be imitated by those who permit their zeal to overcome their judgment.

Revising the Tax Lists.

A special meeting of the Board of County Commissioners will be held to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock for the purpose of revising the tax lists and listing such property and polls as were not given in regularly during the month of June.

DISPENSARY BATTLE.

Campaign is Strenuous, All Else Being Lost in Maelstrom of Public Discussion.

SOME FEATURES OF WEEK.

Both Sides to Question Fighting to Win. Series of Public Demonstrations During Present Week—Antis Quietly, Systematically at Work.

Perhaps never before in the history of Wilmington have the people of the city, at such an early stage of a campaign, been more wrought up over an issue to be submitted at the polls than at present over the dispensary question. One hears little else on the streets nowadays. The fight is rapidly nearing the acute stage. Each side is equally determined. On the one hand are men fighting for a means of livelihood; on the other, a well-organized body of people battling for what they conceive to be a great moral reform for the community. Every conceivable argument and point of strategy is being availed of. The discussion on the street is more often heated and provocative of ill feeling than otherwise, despite counsel to the contrary by the leaders on both sides. It is dollars to doughnuts any day in the week that where two or three are gathered together in groups here or yonder on the sidewalk, the "burning issue" is being presented pro and con., oftimes in declamatory speech reinforced by wild gesticulation and nods of approval from sympathetic bystanders. Fact is, during the past week the dispensary election has been the sole topic of conversation on the streets, even overshadowing in large measure the great Democratic National Convention at St. Louis.

But this week the campaign will take on the picturesque. A series of rallies has been arranged by the dispensary people and the antis, while less demonstrative, will be equally as strenuous in their efforts at vote winning. It is stated by well informed people that Wilmington saloon men are making the first and only well organized fight against the dispensary that has been made in the State. In other towns, they say, the opposition to the temperance wave has been half-hearted and that accounts for the big majorities on the other side. There's no denying that in Wilmington the fight against the dispensary is vigorous and systematic.

The week's campaign for the dispensary will be inaugurated to-morrow night with a big, spectacular open-air meeting at Sixth and Castle streets. Rev. J. L. Vipperman, pastor of Brooklyn Baptist church; Robert G. Grady, Esq., and other local speakers will address the meeting.

On Tuesday night a dispensary rally will be held in the Court House. J. O. Carr, Esq., will make a special address to the young men of the city. The ladies are also especially invited.

On Wednesday night at some downtown point of vantage Rev. A. J. McKelway, editor of the North Carolina Presbyterian and Charlotte Evening News, and Mr. Heriot Clarkson, a leading member of the Charlotte bar, will speak. On Thursday night the same speakers will address the voters of the First ward at some convenient place in that section. Also on Thursday night Hon. H. A. London, of Pittsboro, author of the "London Bill" in the last Legislature, will speak in Fifth ward.

On Friday night Col. N. B. Broughton, of Raleigh, will address the voters of the city in the First ward.

On the following Monday night, Rev. A. P. Tyler and one or two other speakers from Wilson will address the people at some point in the Third ward. On the night following, Tuesday, July 19th, there will be another dispensary rally in the Court House. A number of Wilmington speakers will make short addresses but the one chief feature of the meeting will be a speech by Mr. George Rountree. All will be invited.

The dispensary advocates are alert in other ways besides in the matter of public demonstrations. It was stated yesterday that a number of ladies had been employed to take a poll of the voters of the city, inquiring of each one how he stood on the all-important question. Some work along that line, with varying success, has been done already, it is said.

There was nothing new in the matter of registration yesterday. All the registrars reported a number of inquiries as to whether or not their names were on the books. Several who are on the permanent roll of qualified electors called to confirm their suspicions that their names had not been transcribed and registered a solemn protest. A number indignantly said they would never register anew and that they would vote their convictions in the election or know from the courts why they were denied of their suffrage. In the meantime, it should be borne in mind that despite the ruling to the contrary, there are only five more days for registration. Next Saturday is for challenges.

Meet New S. A. L. Train.

For the accommodation of passengers to and from the new Seaboard trains, which will be inaugurated to-morrow morning, the Consolidated Railways, Light and Power Company will put on a car leaving Ninth and Orange streets by way of the belt at 4:30 A. M., leaving the junction at 4:40 A. M., and arriving at the Seaboard depot at 4:50 A. M. A special car will connect with this train upon arrival at Wilmington at 11:30 P. M.

JUVENILE BASEBALL LEAGUE.

Results on the Diamond Yesterday—Two Five-Inning Games Played in Spite of the Downpour of Rain.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS.

	Won.	Lost.	Per Cent.
M. S. G.	5	1	.833
A. C. L. Jr's.	3	3	.500
S. S. R.	2	4	.333
Financiers	2	4	.333

Although the rain came in torrents yesterday afternoon it couldn't dampen the ardor or enthusiasm of the precocious youngsters of the city juvenile baseball league and two games of five innings each were played before Old Jupiter Pluvius took possession of the diamonds. The hitherto invincible Market Street Giants lost for the first time this season, Umpire Robinson declaring the game one to nothing in favor of the Seventh Street Rattlers, who were strengthened by the addition of Sallings, a crack slab artist. Gerken and Seifert formed the battery for the defeated champions. Six innings had been played when rain drove the teams to shelter, but the umpire called the game back to the end of the fifth and declared the score as stated.

While the "Invincibles" were being defeated at Seventeenth and Market streets the Coast Line Juniors were walloping the Financiers at Seaside Park. The teams barely had time to finish the fifth inning and the actual score was declared by Umpire Neill McLaurin as the official result. Lacy King played centre field for the A. C. L. Jrs., in place of James Wade. Alderman and Houston formed the battery for the victors, while Hines and W. Gore did the honors for the "money kings." There were several changes in the line up of the teams.

DROWNED BOY'S BODY RECOVERED.

Remains of Forrest Chadwick Found Five Miles Above the City—Funeral.

The body of young Forrest Chadwick, the 12-year-old son of Policeman E. R. Chadwick, who was drowned Friday while in bathing with a companion near the Hilton lumber mill, was discovered floating in the river yesterday morning by a colored fisherman near "Rat Island," five miles above Wilmington in the Northeast river. The body of the little fellow, although in the water comparatively a short time, was rather badly decomposed, making it necessary to conduct the funeral and interment at once. Upon the discovery of the body the negro came to Wilmington and reported the find. Mr. James Chadwick, an uncle of the boy, went up the river and brought the body to the city at once.

Funeral services over the remains were held at 4 o'clock in the afternoon from the family residence by Rev. J. L. Vipperman and the interment was in Bellevue cemetery. Eight young companions of the unfortunate boy acted as pall-bearers.

MR. WILLIAMSON'S FATHER DEAD.

Well Known Physician and Retired Cotton Mill Manufacturer of Graham, N. C.

A telegram received in the city yesterday morning announced the death of Dr. John L. Williamson at his home in Graham, N. C. Dr. Williamson was the father of Mr. J. Walter Williamson, secretary and treasurer of the Delgado Cotton Mills of this city, and a gentleman highly esteemed by all who knew him. Mr. Walter Williamson left yesterday afternoon for Graham to attend the funeral.

Dr. Williamson was about 80 years old and was twice married, his second wife being Miss Fannie Holt, daughter of the late Edwin M. Holt. Before his retirement a few years ago on account of age Dr. Williamson was a prominent physician and cotton mill manufacturer, and was well known all over North Carolina. He is survived by three daughters and seven sons, viz: Mrs J. C. Mills, of Reidsville; Mrs. Tobe Williamson, of Caswell county; Mrs. J. W. Menefee, of Greensboro, and Messrs. Benjamin, George, Edwin H., Lawrence A., J. Walter, Finley L. and L. Banks Williamson.

Sailors in Trouble.

Two sailors from the New York steamer were before the Mayor yesterday at noon charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct at Front and Orange streets Friday midnight. They were arrested by Policeman J. J. Johnson and each was fined $5 and costs. Martin Nelson, one of the number, paid the fine and sailed aboard the steamer yesterday afternoon, but Harry Harrelson, the other, will probably have to go to the roads in default of payment of the amount taxed against them.

For Stealing a Bicycle.

Herbert Hines, a colored boy of 12 or 13 years, is held at the police station for satisfactory explanation of how he became owner of a bicycle stolen from Alfred Linquist, a telegraph messenger, about two weeks ago. The boy's mother says she bought the wheel for her son from a Burgaw negro at Scott's Hill some time ago. She is making an effort to establish that fact with a view of having the boy released.

House Party at Pikeville.

Miss Virginia Wadsworth, of Concord; Miss Fay Brown, of Concord, and Miss Pearl Fort, of Pikeville, who have been charming guests at the Seashore Hotel, left yesterday for Pikeville, where Miss Fort will entertain a house party.

GAIETY AT SEASHORE

Hotel Now Literally Thronged With Guests from This and Other States.

THE SKIFF RACE YESTERDAY.

Week-End Dance Last Night and Concert This Evening by Reorganized Hotel Orchestra--Partial List of Seashore Arrivals Yesterday.

The season at Wrightsville Beach reached the zenith of its glory during the past week. Nearly every day of the seven, the Seashore Hotel was literally thronged with guests, including among the number the most prominent people in the business and social circles of this and other States. While many have advanced the apparently well grounded theory that the St. Louis Exposition will seriously detract from seashore and mountain resorts this year, Wrightsville Beach has apparently not suffered in that regard thus far and there is no indication that it will. Manager J. H. Hinton is daily receiving letters and telegrams asking for the reservation of rooms and board and the crowds are expected to keep up until well nigh September. The fourth of July holiday and the annual regatta of the Carolina Yacht Club attracted a record-breaking crowd to the beach on Monday and during the remainder of the week there were events there of minor importance sufficient to make it interesting. A large number of week-end visitors arrived yesterday. Among those registered at the Seashore Hotel were: L. A. Bethune, Clinton; D. C. Jenkins, Greensboro, Mrs. C. W. Tillett, C. W. Tillett, Jr., Thomas Allison and wife, E. V. Finlayson, wife and child, of Charlotte; Miss G. T. Rion, of Tennessee; Mrs. L. G. Lowe, of Mt. Holly, Mrs. A. P. Rhyne, Miss Mary Rhyne, Henry Rhyne, Mt. Holly; J. A. Shmit and wife, of Rock Hill, S. C.; C. J. McCall and wife, Carthage; Miss Myrtle Muse, of Carthage; J. A. Brown, of Chadbourn; Mrs. G. B. McLeod, of Lumberton; E. M. Gilchrist, New York; C. R. Bratton, Charleston, S. C.; John O. Ellington, Smithfield, T. S. Franklin, Charlotte; Eugene H. Reilly, Charlotte; E. L. Galloway, Columbia, S. C.; Geo. Poole, Chicago; W. W. Price, New York; T. A. Hicks, Marietta, Ga., S. F. Burbank, of Washington; Miss Effie Stickney, Wilson, Mrs. W. O. Blount, Miss Blount, Washington, N. C.; F. S. Burbank, Jr., Washington, N. C.; Mrs. F. W. Kraft, Buffalo; Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Hankins, Babcock, Ga.; Charles Gebrman, Baltimore; J. E. Carr, Veloit, Miss., and Miss Adelia Purnell, Raleigh.

Skiff Race Yesterday.

Not a little interest was manifested yesterday in the race by the fleet of dead-rise skiffs at Wrightsville, the interest being confined not alone to home folks. In spite of the heavy rain in Wilmington about the hour for starting there was hardly a drop at the beach, and the race was a great success. The start was from the hotel pier, Major Wm. F. Robertson, Capt. E. L. Hinton and Mr. Geo. P. James having acted as judges. The "Dorothy Dodd," Capt. L. Pinner, finished first with the "Hot Air," Captain J. Holmes Davis, a close second, but owing to a foul between those skiffs, the judges deferred announcement of their decision as to the winner. The record is as follows:

"Sea Crest," Capt. W. W. Roberts; started 4:10; (didn't finish.)

"Dorothy Dodd," Capt. L. Pinner; started, 4:10:15; finished, 5:27:45.

"We-E-Pa," Capt. E. Schulken; started, 4:10:27; (didn't finish.)

"Ell Billie," Capt. DeRosset; started, 4:10:37; (foul.)

"Gull," Capt. William Stevenson, started, 4:11:10; finished, 5:31:44.

Hot Air, Capt. Holmes Davis; started, 4:11:15; finished, 5:31:23.

"Valerie," Capt. Joe Jacobi; started, 4:11:10; finished, 6:05.

Other races of the dead-rise-skiff class will be arranged later and some exciting contests are assured.

The Concert This Evening.

The reorganized orchestra at the Seashore Hotel is now rapidly winning its way to popular enthusiasm. The music for the week-end dance last night was pronounced super-fine and the hop was greatly enjoyed in consequence thereof. At a special Sunday concert at 8 o'clock this evening the orchestra, directed by Prof. C. C. Brannon, will render the following programme:

Grand March—From The Ratcharmer of Hamelin ..... V. Nesler.
Intermezzo — "Under the Palm Trees," Scene Arake ..... Hauck
Overture—"Italians in Algiers," ..... Rossine.
Concert Waltz—"Au Revoir," ..... Waldteufel.
Song—"Violets," Trombone solo, by Mr. Crews ..... Wright.
Selection from Maritana ..... Wallace.
The Midnight Flyer ..... Hager.

First in New Court House.

In negotiating a real estate transaction, Jno. D. Bellamy, Jr., Esq., on yesterday had an occasion to cancel for a client the first mortgage recorded in the new Court House some 12 or 13 years ago. Mr. John Haar was then register of deeds and a note of the registration of the mortgage as the first in the new Court House was made. The mortgage was on real estate, which has recently changed hands.

A dip in the ocean these hot afternoons is a pleasure beyond compare—car every half hour in the afternoon.

MISHAP FOR SAILING PARTY.

Mr. C. D. Maffitt's Pleasure Launch Capsized With Party Yesterday.

A party of young people, nearly all of them guests at the Seashore Hotel, received a "good ducking" yesterday afternoon about 5:30 o'clock as the result of the capsizing of Mr. C. D. Maffitt's yacht "Hart Saver," in which they were enjoying a sail up Mott's channel in the sound, off the Seashore Hotel and about a mile distant therefrom. A stiff breeze sprang up, suddenly shifted and over the boat came, precipitating the party in about ten feet of water. They clung to the sides of the boat and remained perfectly cool until Mr. A. B. Skelding and Miss Randolph came to their rescue in gasoline launches. At no time was any member of the party in danger of drowning, and none of them appeared to be frightened. Capt. Maffitt remained by his boat and, with assistance, finally righted her and sailed over to the hotel pier, where he was greeted with vociferous applause.

In the party were the Misses Rhyne, Miss Lowe, Mr. Henry Rhyne and Mrs. Brown Wallace, of Mt. Holly, N. C.; Miss Snider, of Concord; Mr. Gilbert Foard, of Wilmington, and Capt. Maffitt.

THE MAN TO BEAT ROOSEVELT.

Having assembled at St. Louis on the 6th of July, the Democratic National Convention finished up its work yesterday, after an all night session. At 6:40 A. M. yesterday, Judge Alton Brooks Parker, of New York, was nominated on the first ballot. Having admitted the Philippine delegates to a seat in the convention, the necessary two-thirds vote to nominate was increased from 663 to 667, and on the first ballot Judge Parker received 658 votes. Before the vote was announced, Idaho changed her 6 votes to Parker and West Virginia followed suit with 3 more, making up the 667 votes necessaly to nominate. North Carolina gave the nominee her solid 24 votes. After the nomination of the New Yorker had been assured the convention made it unanimous.

Long before the New York Democratic Democratic State convention met and instructed for Judge Parker, the STAR had picked him out for a winner. We were first attacted to his availability, in that he was a man of lofty character, fine ability, spotless life and clean record, and and when his State instructed her delegation for him, followed by instructed delegations from other pivotal States, we concluded that it was settled that Judge Parker was the logical candidate for the Democracy to name for President. We, therefore, in season and out of season, urged North Carolina to instruct for the New Yorker, but while it was not done, a Parker delegation went to St. Louis and voted solidly for his nomination,

The Democracy has named its strongest candidate, and we confidently believe that the American people will pick him out as in every particular overtowering Roosevelt in fitness and safety to be the Chief Magistrate of the American Republic.

The platform upon which, Judge Parker goes before the people is one upon which the Democracy of the country is united. Even Col. Bryan is satisfied, and that the platform is the product of a convention, more than two-thirds of which stood for a return to fundamental Democracy, it is sufficient to say that it speaks out unequivocally on the issues which deeply concern and affect the American people at this time. The questions are so plainly laid down that the voters of the United States can decide for themselves whether or not they want a revision of the trust—fostering tariff, a safe President, and a clean government.

The enduring principles of the Democratic party were sufficient upon which to establish the great American Republic and steer it safely and successfully in war and peace. The Democratic party had given the world a conspicuous example of nation building three-quarters of a century before the Republican party came into existence, and the party is ready again to restore to the people a Republican form of government instead of the White House satrapy into which it has resolved itself under Theodore Roosevelt.

The past success of the Democratic party in republic building and statesmen creating entitles it to the confidence of all true Americans, and with a judicially minded candidate like Parker, learned in the science of government and recognized authority on our Federal constitution—a man of eminent ability, matchless integrity and superb character—the party can appeal to the people of the United States with confident expectation of their support.

Night Was Her Terror.

"I would cough nearly all night long," writes Mrs. Charles Applegate, of Alexandria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that if I walked a block I would cough frightfully and spit blood; but, when all other medicines failed, three $1.00 bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery wholly cured me and I gained fifty-eight pounds.' It's absolutely guaranteed to cure Coughs, Colds, La Grippe, Bronchitis and all Throat and Lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at R. R. BELLAMY'S drug store. †

JUDGE PARKER WANTS TO BE NOTIFIED AT ONCE.

A dispatch from Esopus says that the first positive statement bearing on the political situation which has been traced to Judge Parker, was rumored around that town on Thursday night. The gossip was that Judge Parker has expressed a desire to William F. Sheehan that in the event of his nomination the notification shall take place at a very early date—within a fortnight, if possible. It was wired also that meanwhile he has no intention of breaking his silence.

Having been from the start the logical candidate for the Democratic nomination, not to mention that Destiny must have whispered something to him, the Sage of Esopus must have been confident from the very beginning that he was to be the nominee for President. He has consequently had time to prepare what he had to say in accepting the nomination. We hope, therefore, that the notification of his nomination will be made at once, so Judge Parker can say something that will inspire the Democratic party with an enthusiasm that will last from now till election day on the 8th of next November.

—- The hardest blow the President has received was delivered by "Lou" Payn, who declares that he and the President are in perfect accord now, and that the President is the man who has changed.—Washington Post.

—- When Mr. Root was warning Yale students of the perils of the usurpation of authority he must have forgotten that he advised the President there was a "constructive recess" of Congress between 12 noon and 12 noon.—New York World.

—- It is estimated that strikes have cost Colorado $23,036,000 during the last sixteen weeks. Labor wars are more costly than the kind Russia and Japan are waging, and, unlike the latter war, there seems to be not even a remote prospect of their ending.—New York Tribune.

—- Pennsylvania keeps up its "Keystone" reputation. In the Continental Congress it gave the deciding vote in favor of the Declaration of Independence. At St. Louis the Pennsylvania delegation gave the finishing impetus to the Parker movement which forecasted his nomination.—Philadelphia Record.

TWINKLINGS.

— Stayer: "I am very impulsive; I never know when to stop." Miss Weary: "Oh, yes, you do. The trouble is, you don't know when to go."

—"Say," queried the beardless youth, "does a woman always mean what she says? "Well," replied the man with the absent hair, "if she's married she always does."—Chicago News.

— Kitty—"O, Auntie I am so happy! Horrace says there's nobody in all the world like me." Aunt Jane—"Nonsense! You're not so eccentric as all that—although there's no denying you are a bit odd."—Boston Transcript.

— Mrs. Deepdigger—You never said a word about our wedding anniversary last Sunday—not a word. Prof. Deepdigger—My dear, how can you expect me to take any interest in anything so ridiculously recent?—Judge.

— Strict Grandmother (playfully, as she is leaving after a two weeks' visit): "Of course, you're real glad, Johnny, that I'm going away." Johnny (with astonishment): "How did you find it out, grandma?"—New York Sun.

Cooling Off.

The man who would sit on a cake of ice to cool off would be considered crazy. Yet it is a very common thing for a person heated by exercise to stand in a cool draught, just to cool off. This is the beginning of many a cough which ultimately involves the bronchial tract and the lungs.

For coughs in any stage there is no remedy so valuable as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures deep-seated, obstinate coughs, bronchitis, bleeding of the lungs, and like conditions which if neglected or unskillfully treated terminate in consumption.

There is no alcohol in "Golden Medical Discovery," and it is entirely free from opium, cocaine and other narcotics.

Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is nothing "just as good."

"I took a severe cold which settled in the bronchial tubes," writes Rev. Frank Hay, of Nortonville, Jefferson Co., Kansas. "After trying medicines labeled 'Sure Cure,' almost without number, I was led to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I took two bottles and was cured, and have stayed cured.

"When I think of the great pain I had to endure, and the terrible cough I had, it seems almost a miracle that I was so soon relieved.

"That God may spare you many years and abundantly bless you is the prayer of your grateful friend."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, containing 1008 large pages, is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers or 31 stamps for it in cloth binding. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

— At Salisbury on Friday P. E. Sowers, of Spencer, whose son, Carl J. Sowers, was killed in an accident on the Southern railroad, affected a settlement by which the railroad paid him $6,000.

— Raleigh News and Observer, July 9th: The wires say that 192 North Carolinians were at the St. Louis convention yesterday. When they get back just think of 192 crowds listening to the vivid accounts they will give.

— The Bank of Yancey, with a principal office at Burnsville, Yancey county, with $10,000 authorized capital stock, all paid in, was chartered on Friday at Raleigh. The incorporators are: C. F. Byrd, T. F. Roland and others, of Burnsville and Yancey county.

— Salisbury Sun, July 6: Mr. Philip Sowers, the largest landowner in Rowan county, finished threshing wheat yesterday and will have about 1,000 bushels from his "patch," as Mr. Sowers names it, embracing several acres near his home. The yield was 40 bushels per acre on several acres.

— Raleigh News and Observer: The Bull of Bashan's bellow would be lost in the St. Louis convention according to Temporary Chairman John Sharp Williams. The lungs of a jackass were needed at Greensboro, was State Chairman Simmons' sentiment. The man without a voice is up against it these days.

— Taylorsville Scout: Corporal punishment was inflicted upon a man, by two women, up in Sugar Loaf, some days ago, for the purpose of teaching him that it was not right and proper to get on too much moonshine and make the night hideous with his vulgar and profane language.

— Salisbury Sun, July 7: There was a reunion of two Confederates who had not seen other for forty years at the depot this morning. Mr. James N. Williams, of Roanoke, Va., and W. T. Harper, of Columbia, S. C., both of whom served in the same regiment, engaged in conversation on the popular topic of a presidential possibility, resulting in the discovery that they were comrades. A conversation, necessarily relating to old times, followed the discovery.

— A St. Louis special on Thursday to the Raleigh News and Observer says: National Committeeman Daniels' box at the convention was occupied today by Mrs. Locke Craig, Mrs. Nathan O'Berry, Miss Estelle O'Berry, Mrs. C. C. Cooper, of Rocky Mount; Miss Evelyn Henderson, of Surry, and Misses Belle and Ethel Bagley. Lieutenant Richmond Pearson Hobson, of Merrimac fame, was a visitor at the box this afternoon, where he called for the purpose of meeting the Misses Bagley, whose lamented brother he knew and admired.

— Charlotte Chronicle: Sentiment among the North Carolina delegation at St. Louis, is said to be "strongly in favor of a 'compromise' platform." The Norty Carolinians say they "want a platform on which all Democrats can stand." If any State ought to have good and sufficient reasons for being tired of compromises, it is North Carolina. The compromise act, or the truckling for votes, the bartering of principles for the hope of gain, never did and never will pay. We hope the North Carolina delegation has been misrepresented, but we fear it has not.

— Raleigh News and Observer, July 9th: In another column will be found a reprint from the Corporation Commission report of the condition of the banks in this State, other than National Banks, to-wit: State Banks, Savings Banks and private banks, separately and combined. It will be noted that the total resources are $29,416,580.86; that the total deposits, including those subject to check, time certificates, demand certificates, cashier's checks outstanding, cashier's checks and trust deposits, amount to $21,465,020.52; that the available cash in vaults and due from other banks is about $5,000,000 or nearly 25 per cent. of such deposits. This is equal to the requirement which the national banks must meet under the national banking laws. The capital stock is $4,771,704.65 and the surplus, with undivided profits, is $1,631,548.92, which is about 35 per cent. of the capital. In other words the average book value of each $100 share of stock of the banks in this State (other than national banks) is about $135. The statement indicates that the funds of the banks are kept well employed, and that the banks of North Carolina are in a sound and healthy condition.

ALL OVER THE HOUSE.

A Cheerful Georgia Kitchen That Had a Front Door.

Why should kitchens be always built at the back of the house, where the grass is trimmed down and slop pails accumulate? Why have a back of the house anyway instead of two fronts, equally respected? The writer recalls in Georgia a long brick house, with three front doors, one of them the kitchen door. You could look straight through the house in pleasant weather, because there were three other doors facing the ones that looked over the bay. The rose that was trained over the drawing room ran along to the kitchen and peeped in at the dear old mammy who sang there very often. To balance things, the peach tree that was trained, English fashion, on the sunny wall of the kitchen, extended its pliant branches to the dining room grapevines.

Parsley grew in the violet borders, the cream smelled of roses and the flavor of peach leaves that shamed the druggists' product lingered in the cake. The mistress could sit in the drawing room and see the children coming home from school or guests driving up from either direction, and consequently a fresh handkerchief and collar were always ready. Dicey, in the kitchen, could always see them, too, and cake was on the plate, and Zeke was in his dress coat when the door knocker rapped. And no one in that house knew the front or back thereof. It was a kindly and original old Pennsylvania German who built a great, sunny kitchen where the company room is generally placed, because, he said, "mother" spent nearly all her time in the kitchen, and she should have the best. He gained praise in his country, but no followers.—Cooking School Magazine.

A Dust Bag.

If you do not possess a dust mop for wiping dust from floors you will find a dust bag a good substitute. Take a piece of outing flannel twenty-three inches long, cut off six inches from the length, fold the remaining piece lengthwise, making two oblongs about fourteen inches wide. Slope these at the sides, having one end about seven inches wide. Hem this narrow end and run a tape through the hem. Fold and gather the six inch strip so as to make a double ruffle and insert it between the wide ends. Sew the sloping edges of one side together and hem them on the other side. Four inches from the wide end and six inches from the narrow end sew tapes at opposite sides. Slip the bag on a broom and tie in position with the tapes.

Using Bits of Tapestry.

The day when tapestry was only considered fit for wall hangings and drapery has passed. This fabric is now put to so many uses that every scrap is hoarded, and not even the smallest piece is permitted to go to waste. In these days, when it is quite the fashion for the family Jack of all trades to reupholster his own furniture and to redecorate his rooms with new hangings, the odds and ends which are left are all saved.

An old trunk was made to look like new by pasting panels of tapestry on it and finishing each one with a gimp and brass headed tacks. The waste pieces were used for photograph frames, glove boxes and wall pockets. — Washington Star.

To Cleanse Soiled Carpets.

An experienced chemist says the following recipe is warranted to remove soil and spots from the most delicate carpets without injuring them: Make a suds with a good white soap and hot water and add fuller's earth to this until the consistency of thin cream is secured. Have plenty of clean drying cloth, a small scrubbing brush, a large sponge and a pail of fresh water. Put some of the cleaning mixture in a bowl and dip a brush in it; brush a small piece of the carpet with this, then wash with the sponge and cold water. Dry as much as possible with the sponge and finally rub with dry cloths. Continue this till you are sure that all the carpet is clean, then let it dry.

Business View of Health.

"Old fellow, you ought to eat more fruit. It's cheaper than paying doctor bills."

"But I don't have to pay any doctor bills as it is. I am never sick."

"That may be, but if you'd eat more fruit you would be able to draw dividends on your health."—Chicago Tribune.

Trying Them On.

"My new play is sure to make a hit," said the eminent actress. "It gives me an opportunity to show twenty superb gowns."

"Gracious, how many scenes do you appear in?"

"Only five, but one of them's a scene at the dressmaker's."

Too Much For Him.

"They say that after seven rehearsals Charley Swimmington actually stumbled through the wedding ceremony."

"Overtrained, I suppose."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

COTTON MARKETS

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, July 9.—The cotton market opened weak at a decline of twenty-three points on the old and of eight to twenty-two points on the new crop months under active liquidation and a renewal of bear pressure, encouraged by the sensational decline at Liverpool and the favorable weather which was predicted to continue over today and tomorrow. At first yesterday's sellers took profits freely and the market for a time fluctuated very irregularly around the opening figures, but later New Orleans, the South generally, and some of the leading room traders selling heavily, the market ruled weak in tone at a decline of about seventeen to twenty-seven points. The cotton market closed steady, with prices net eleven to thirty-five points lower. The spot market closed quiet, with prices thirty points lower on the basis of 10.95 for middling up lands and 11.20 for middling gulf. Sales were 735 bales.

NEW YORK, July 9.—Cotton was quoted quiet at 10.95c, net receipts — bales; gross receipts 1,095 bales; stock 56,724 bales.

Spot cotton closed quiet and 30 points lower; middling uplands 10.95c, middling gulf 11.30c; sales 735 bales.

THE DISPENSARY QUESTION.

Mr Hugh MacRae Gives Reasons for His Opinion That It Would Be a Mistake to Establish a Dispensary in Wilmington.

LINVILLE, N. C., July 30th, 1904.
Mr. Matt J. Heyer, President,
Atlantic Trust & Banking Company, Wilmington, N. C.:

DEAR SIR—When in Wilmington I expressed to you the opinion that it would be a mistake for the city to establish a dispensary. In compliance with request in your letter of June 25th, I give some reasons for this belief.

The keynote of the whole question, to my mind, is the prosperity of Wilmington, I am anxious for the development of the city and this is both my reason and excuse for expressing an opinion.

Wilmington, after remaining in a semi stagnant condition for the thirty-nine years which have elapsed since the war, has within the past three years commenced to show progress. The opportunities which have existed there in a dormant state have only recently been realized and taken advantage of by the co-operation of the citizens. All have seen the time when there was comparatively little public spirit and are proud of the fact that today the city is full of hope and energy. It must be realized that a few men can tear down more than a hundred men can build up. When the public comes fully to understand the difference between those who build and develop resources and those who exert their energies towards destroying and making development impossible, then, Wilmington can hope to make the rate of progress to which it is entitled, by reason of immense natural advantages.

During the controversy relative to the question under consideration, it has been said, "if Wilmington's future is dependent upon the liquor traffic, it will be better to forego the prosperity." This statement is impressive, but misleading. The prosperity of Wilmington is probably not dependent directly upon the present method of carrying on the liquor business. I make no argument in favor of the saloons. This question has been fought out in many different localities, and people have, in most cases, come to the conclusion that you cannot stamp out by legislation habits which are considered perquisites of the male population. The result has been to substitute one form of evil with another. As I understand the dispensary it is the greater of the two evils. The opportunity to get whiskey is as great as before; the supposed advantage is that the city takes control of the traffic and makes a profit out of it. The business goes into politics; the larger the profit the more gratifying the result to the advocates, and the evil is actually encouraged by the men who argue that they are willing to abandon prosperity if dependent on this traffic. No individual has the right thus to waive aside a condition of prosperity which means a chance to earn a comfortable livelihood for every worker with hand or brains, and which means the better nourishing, better clothing and better education—in a word—the higher development of the coming generations.

But this is not the direction from which prosperity is crippled. The trouble comes from the fact that the community becomes divided against itself. There are good people on both sides of the question. They use all their energies and ability in fighting each other and bring to bear arguments which can be made on both sides. It all ends in bitterness and antagonism. This is a blight on any place and is about as bad as sowing fertile land with salt. There has been much of this in Wilmington in the past and it would seem desirable and important that all of this force and energy should be used in building up the place.

The dispensary plan proposes at once to injure the business (by taking it away) of forty or more citizens, many of whom are among the most substantial in Wilmington. The business of these citizens has been legalized and given a standing in Wilmington for perhaps a century. If this was a mistake, it was everybody's mistake, and it is certainly not fair, and it is not wise to make a sudden sweeping change which destroys these heretofore recognized rights. There should be devised some gradual method of changing, or eliminating these interests. There are few who now argue that it was wrong to abolish slavery, but nearly all will admit that the plan adopted was bad, and that the sudden sweeping away of the wealth, which was based upon the conditions then prevailing has left many in the South who still suffer directly from this act. You can do what is inherently right, in a way that makes it almost criminal.

We have heard and known of cases in which cities have apparently been very much injured by changing to the dispensary plan. I do not refer to towns and villages because you cannot judge them by the same rules. In the really large cities of the United States I do not think there is a case where the dispensary plan has ever been seriously considered. What will work in a rural community will not necessarily work in a large place.

The same caution and intelligence should be given to this question that an individual would give to a new proposition which he thought of taking up and in which a mistake would be vital to his interests.

Wilmington could study profitably the experience of other cities, in this matter.

The least that could be done in fairness to the community and its future would be to have a commission of intelligent men selected to visit a number of the larger places like Charleston, S. C., and Danville, Va., which have tried dispensary. This commission should take evidence from both sides and arrange to make a published report before the coming election. The membership of the commission could be equally divided between those inclined towards dispensary and those opposed to it, so that it would start out as near neutral as possible and be entirely governed by the intelligent consideration of the evidence which would be obtained by them. The members should be selected for ability and fairness and should be men who would find the facts and have the courage to state them when found. When this report was published the voters would hope to be in position to act intelligently.

It would be a bitter mistake to hastily take such an important step and then find that it caused a blight upon the city, especially when it only substituted one form of evil for another.

One argument for the dispensary has been that it raises revenues. The way to raise revenues is to create values which can bear taxation, not to make the taxes so burdensome that the enterprise is crushed. This plan commences by lessening taxable values when it destroys the business and renting value of the stores of forty or fifty men.

There must be some best way out of every difficulty. It is useless to kick, or object unless there is some better plan which can be substituted for the one objected to. Some of the best thinkers believe that high license is the fair solution of this question. It gives to the city the revenues desired without destroying the business of so many people and without causing the city to go into the liquor traffic. It tends to make more respectful the places at which whiskey is sold, and permits of their being under much better control.

There is certainly no necessity of hasty and ill considered action.

Yours, very truly,
HUGH MACRAE.

ANOTHER WONDER OF SCIENCE.

Biology has Proved that Dandruff is Caused by a Germ.

Science is doing wonders these days in medicine as well as in mechanics. Since Adam lived, the human race has been troubled with dandruff, for which no hair preparation has heretofore proved a successful cure until Newbro's Herpicide was put on the market. It is a scientific preparation that kills the germ that makes dandruff or scurf by digging into the scalp to get at the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality; causing itching scalp, falling hair, and finally baldness. Without dandruff hair must grow luxuriantly. It is the only destroyer of dandruff. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

The Morning Star

WILMINGTON, N. C.

SUNDAY MORNING. JULY 10.

HOW PARKER RECEIVED NEWS OF NOMINATION.

Was Climbing Out of the Water After His Morning Swim—Declined to Make Any Comment on the Situation.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

ESOPUS, N.Y., July 9.—The news of Judge Parker's nomination was given to him at 6:50 A. M. to-day, by the correspondent of the Associated Press, who found him clambering out of the water after his morning swim.

"Well, Judge, you've got it," cried the reporter as the athletic figure of the judge appeared over the bow of the barge from which he had been diving.

"Is that so?" replied the judge, his ruddy face breaking into a cheery smile, in which satisfaction was undisguised. He asked for details of the final vote, and displayed the liveliest interest in every fact and figure, at the same time refraining from the slightest comment.

When asked if he would say anything on the matter of his nomination, he said:

"No, I shall say nothing whatever upon the subject until I am formally notified of my nomination."

He climbed up the steep bank to his house, and cordially received the greetings of the other newspaper men, who had been waiting there, but again declined to make any comment upon the situation.

From 9:45 P. M. until after 6 o'clock this morning, during the hours the convention was in session, Judge Parker remained in his room, which he left only to go to the river for his usual swim. At the time he knew only that there had been an all night session of the convention and that the balloting had begun.

There is little doubt that Judge Parker has been confident for many days that he would be nominated, and while he would not discuss this aspect of the question, this morning, it was plain that the announcement of the result brought him no surprise unless perhaps in some detail of the figures involved.

Judge Parker devoted the first leisure of the morning to reading the morning papers, devoting close attention to the platform. He refused to make any comment whatever upon the platform. Afterwards he started for a ride on horseback. The American flag was run up on the Rosemont flagstaff to-day and flags and bunting appear in increasing profusion on all buildings in Esopus. A celebration planned for to-night has been postponed until next week. By that time it is expected the Ulster county delegation will have returned from St. Louis. Telegrams of congratulation have begun to arrive.

CLEVELAND GRATIFIED.

Informed of Nomination of Judge Parker for President as Soon as He Awoke Yesterday Morning.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

BUZZARD BAY, MASS., July 9.—Former President Grover Cleveland, who is the guest here of Joseph Jefferson, was advised of the nomination of Judge Parker for president as soon as he awoke this morning. Later Mr. Cleveland sent the following statement to the Associated Press:

Mr. Cleveland declines to see any reporter or representative of the press, but sends the following word from his room to the Associated Press: "I am in absolute ignorance of the action of the St. Louis convention except in so far as it has nominated Mr. Parker as presidential candidate. With this result I am abundantly gratified and I hope that the remainder of the work of the convention will add to the encouraging prospects of Democratic success. This is all I can possibly say at this time. I do not know when I shall have an opportunity to read the platform adopted or to learn of the entire proceedings of the convention. In any event it is absolutely certain that no further expression from me may be expected at present. I hope to be relieved of further importunity on this subject."

Regards It as Firmly and Irrevocably Established—Asks to Decline Nomination if His View is Unsatisfactory—Vice Presidency.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CONVENTION HALL, ST. LOUIS, July 9.—It was 5:37 o'clock when the first sign of opening the session was made. Chairman Clark belabored the table with the heavy gavel, but said nothing. A little later he called the convention to order and directed the delegates to take their seats.

Representative John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi, moved that nomination speeches be limited to fifteen minutes and seconding speeches to five minutes.

T. H. Ball, of Texas, offered a substitute limiting the nominating speeches to ten minutes, leaving the times of the seconding speeches at five minutes and limiting the number to three.

Mr. Williams at once withdrew his motion in favor of the substitute, which was adopted without dissent.

The roll of States was then called for the presentation of candidates for vice president.

Even at this time the galleries were less than half filled and great areas of vacant seats were visible.

Alabama was called several times with no response, but finally Mr. Russell of that State announced that Alabama will give way to Illinois.

Samuel Alschuler, of Illinois, announced that Freeman B. Morris would speak for that State. Mr. Morris took the platform to name James R. Williams, of Illinois. Cheers greeted the mention of Mr. Williams' name, but they did not come in great measure from the delegates.

Colorado yielded to Washington, and Chairman Clark recognized Frederick C. Robertson, of that State, who spoke for ex-Senator George Turner.

Connecticut yielded to Indiana and Delegate Spencer, of that State, seconded the nomination of Williams, of Illinois.

By this time a report that a telegram had been received from Judge Parker declaring his position on the financial question had become general.

A crowd of delegates hurriedly gathered around Sheehan, of New York, and Tillman, of South Carolina.

Little conferences began to occur and the orators did not receive much attention except from the galleries and the small fry who did not know that a probable sensation was ripening all about them.

Delaware gave her place in the call to West Virginia and the chair recognized John D. Alderson, of that State, who placed in nomination Henry G. Davis, of West Virginia.

Senator DuBois, of Idaho, seconded the nomination of George Turner, of Washington.

David Overmyer, of Kansas, placed former Senator William A. Harris, of that State, in nomination.

As the unexciting routine of the nominating and seconding speeches proceeded, the storm that seemed inevitable was gathering. Leaders hurried to and fro with anxious faces and the news from Esopus spread rapidly. The floor filled with delegates and in the Parker States men sat with heads close together in whispered consultation. At seven o'clock there were signs to the initiated that the session was going to be dramatic in the extreme, but the average delegate smiled and listened to the flow of favorite son oratory all unconscious of the great things that were moving in the party's heart.

The roll call of States proceeded until Maryland was reached without a response. For Maryland, John Prentice Poe seconded the nomination of Davis, of West Virginia.

Senator William E. Clark, of Montana, seconded the Turner nomination.

Nebraska's response was a statement that she waited with interest the choice of New York. New York requested to be passed when called on the roll.

"Ohio has no candidate," was announced when the Buckeye State was reached.

Tennessee passed the call.

The first sign of the approaching storm was started at just 7 o'clock. Senator South, of Arkansas, broke in on the roll call with a motion, that in view of the rumors that were disturbing the convention a recess be taken until 8 o'clock. His motion did not prevail.

The convention was in such an uproar because of the Parker telegram rumors that the latter part of the roll call for the presentation of candidates for vice president was inaudible.

Chairman Clark directed that the roll be called for announcement of the votes.

Senator Culberson, of Texas, secured recognition and mounting his chair said:

For reasons which are obvious to all the delegates here, it seems to me that we ought not to proceed at this time to nominate a candidate for vice president, and I therefore move that the convention"——here cries of "Why!" "Why," interrrupted Senator Culberson.

"I think the delegates understand what I mean," he proceeded.

Chairman Clark interjected "proceed."

"And I repeat," concluded Senator Culberson, "that in the present exigencies which confront the convention it ought not to proceed to the nomination of a vice president."

"Right!" "Right!" greeted this statement. "We want to know before a candidate for vice president is nominated, who will be the candidate for president." Applause and cries of approval again interrupted the Senator. When he could be heard he made a motion for a recess until 8:30. The din and excitement increased while the senator was speaking and he was cordially invited both to "keep on" and to "sit down." His motion was put by the chairman. The vote was, in the opinion of most people, lost, but Chairman Clark loudly banged his desk, declared it carried and quickly left the platform before the convention recovered from its amazement.

The confusion, before Senator Culberson rose, was intensified greatly when he sat down after intimating that Judge Parker might possibly vacate the head of the ticket. As soon as the recess was announced the delegates instead of leaving the hall rushed into conferences. In an instant there was fully twenty groups in the hall, in the centre of which were two or three violently excited and gesticulating men who discussed the Parker telegram vehemently. The police again and again walked along the aisles, endeavoring to clear them, but the delegates refused to move and the excitement grew rather than abated. A dense throng, through which it was impossible to pass, gathered in front of the chairman's desk and strove desperately to learn the exact import of the message. Their efforts were unavailing, however. The leaders disappeared and the session closed with an atmosphere of tense expectancy as to what would occur when it reconvened at 8:30.

Session Reconvened.

At 7:10 o'clock Chairman Clark pounded vigorously with his gavel and asked that the delegates be seated and the aisles cleared. He did not formally call the convention to order, but as soon as some degree of quiet had been restored Governor Vardaman, of Mississippi, without formal recognition by the chairman, proceeded to address the convention on the subject of the mysterious telegram.

He said that rumors were abroad that a telegram had been received from Judge Parker, and these reports had caused such excitement and apprehension that he would move that the gentleman of the New York delegation, reported as the recipient of the message, should send it to the clerk's desk to be read.

"The confusion of the rabble and the mob has characterized every hour of the convention since its sitting," declared Governor Vardaman. "Let us find out what this rumor is," he concluded, "that has caused disorder in this hall. Let the gentleman from New York to whom the telegram is addressed read it—let it be read. Let the truth be known and then let us proceed to business."

Loud applause followed this declaration and continued as Governor Vardaman took his seat.

Chairman Clark replied: "It is moved that the New York delegation or the member of that delegation who has the telegram that has been bruited about this city produce it and read it to this convention."

George Raines, of New York, asked that the motion be deferred until the chairman of his delegation could be heard from.

"How much time do you want?" asked the chairman.

"I understand the chairman of the New York delegation is now on his way to the hall," was the reply.

"The chair requests the gentleman from Mississippi to withdraw his motion for a few moments," said Mr. Clark.

Governor Vardaman acquiesced and Judge Richardson, of Alabama, asked that Senator Carmack be interrogated as to whether or not he has received a telegram from Judge Parker, saying that he could not accept the nomination unless there was a gold declaration in the platform, and which was published in an evening paper.

"Gentlemen," said the chairman, "this is the most weighty matter that has come before this convention, and we want no information second hand. We want it from the fountain head. I understand that the message is now on the way to the hall, and I suggest that we await its arrival."

The suggestion was approved with a shout and quiet settled down over the convention pending the arrival of the important message from the Southern hotel.

The conference committee reached the hall at 9:35 and filed slowly along the crowded aisle in the center of the convention floor. Delegates thronged about them, asking: "What shall we do?"

"Keep your heads and behave," retorted Senator Tillman with emphasis, and he repeated the injunction at numerous intervals.

John S. Williams, Governor Vardaman, Senator Tillman and Senator Carmack made their way to the platform with the mysterious message in their possession.

A short conference took place among the four and Chairman Clark, while the delegates who had for the moment put excitement away from them sang "My Old Kentucky Home."

Chairman Clark pounded for order, with John S. Williams standing by his side.

"I wish to announce in advance," said the chairman, "that on this important matter every man shall have a full and fair hearing. I now introduce John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi.

Mr. Williams spoke as follows:

"Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen of the Convention—All of us were very much surprised and excited this afternoon, to use no stronger words, at what purported to be copies of telegrams which had been sent by our nominee to Mr. Carmack and others in this city. I want to tell you that but one telegram has been received. Mr. Carmack not only received no telegram to-day of the character that was published, but never received a telegram from Mr. Parker in all of his life. And nobody received a telegram containing the language in that infamous volunteer production. (Loud cheers and applause.) A telegram has come from Mr. Parker to Mr. Sheehan, however, which I shall read in a moment and it is so important that you should know what it is that, after I have read it, I shall hand it to my friend the governor of my State, Mr. Vardaman, and have him read it over again. When you shall have heard it you will note that there is not in it one word about requiring or demanding, or asking, or requesting, that anything should be placed in the Democratic platform. (Loud applause.) You will also note if there is any error in it at all it is an error of judgment proceding from a too-sensitive spirit of honor (applause) to be misunderstood or placed in a false or in a double position. I shall now ask Governor Vardaman to read the telegram to you." (Loud cheering and applause.)

Mr. Williams then handed the message to Governor Vardaman, who, after requesting absolute quiet, read the telegram as follows:

"Hon. W. F. Sheehan, Hotel Jefferson, St. Louis:

"I regard the gold standard as firmly and irrevocably established and shall act accordingly if the action of the convention of to-day shall be ratified by the people. As the platform is silent on the subject, my view should be made known to the convention, and if it is proved to be unsatisfactory to the majority, I request you to decline the nomination for me at once, so that another may be nominated before adjournment.

(Signed) "A. B. PARKER."

A ringing cheer went around the hall, but it was brief, so anxious were the delegates to see what would follow.

Mr. Williams—Mr. Chairman, I think you will bear me out in what I said. This is the first time in the history of the United States that a man already nominated for the greatest office on the surface of this earth has been so supersensitive about a matter of personal rectitude and honor as to send a telegram to a friend asking him to decine the nomination for him, if, as he seems to have been informed, there is something in the platform which is not in accord with his own opinion.

My friends, we purposely made this platform silent because we are all agreed that that was not an issue in this campaign (applause) and we agreed furthermore that nothing should be placed in the platform which was not a campaign issue, and the consequence was that, in the resolutions committee, motions were made to table, and those motions were carried, tabling every resolution on both sides which tended to bring up as an issue in this campaign the question of monetary standard.

Now, my friends, Judge Parker expresses his opinion for fear somebody might think that you did not know it. There was not in all this vast assembly one single, solitary man who did not already know that Judge Parker was a gold standard man. I have been one of the most consistent, persistent and perhaps radical free silver men in the United States, and I knew that he was a gold standard man and he never made any attempt to conceal it from anybody. He had supported our candidates, and had said that although he did not agree with us upon this plank he was still a Democrat. (Applause.)

Now, my friends, we had, so far as the question of the monetary standard was concerned, in a campaign which was to be fought against imperialism, against executive usurpation, purposely made a platform upon which W. J. Bryan could have stood, or anybody else who was with us in the pending live campaign issues could have stood. (Applause.)

His declaration that Parker's views were known to every man in the convention was received with faint applause. He asked Senator Tillman to read the message, but there was a short delay, owing to the difficulty experienced by the Senator in deciphering the handwriting of Mr. Williams, The Senator asked for quiet, saying that he had undergone an operation on his throat and that his voice had lost "that nightingale quality that it once possessed."

He then proceeded to read, when Mr. Williams interrupted him with the remark: "Here is a typewritten copy."

"For which I thank Almighty God," returned the Senator.

He then read the following message to Judge Parker:

"The platform adopted by this convention is silent on the question of the monetary standard, because it is not regarded by us as a possible issue in this campaign and only campaign issues were mentioned in the platform. Therefore there is nothing in the views expressed by you in the telegram just received which would preclude a man entertaining them from accepting a nomination on said platform." (Applause.)

Mr. Tillman's remarks were followed closely by the whole audience. His vehement declaration "I swore by Almighty God that I would not endure to be trifled with," brought forth applause and cheers. As Senator Tillman was endeavoring to answer a question injected into the discussion by Senator Pettigrew, of South Dakota, as to whether Mr. Hill had not stated in committee that he did not know Judge Parker's views on the financial question, Mr. Bryan came into the hall. Instantly there was an uproar. Calls of "Bryan!" "Bryan!" went up, and the galleries cheered. Mr. Bryan first went to his place in the pit, but as the cries of the Nebraskan's name, coupled with the words "platform," "platform," continued, Mr. Bryan made his way to the stage. His face was chalk white, as he walked rapidly up the wide aisle, his lips were compressed to a thin line and his brows drawn straight. He nervously fanned himself and paid no attention to the hands that were held out to him as he passed.

After a threat on the chairman's part to clear the galleries where most of the disturbance came from, the noise ceased. Senator Tillman continued by saying that if he understood the present temper of the delegates the threats of the chair with reference to the galleries would be carried out.

"Lookout out," shouted a voice.

"You look out or you will be put out," retorted Mr. Tillman, and instantly the police seized the offending spectator and ejected him. When the Senator concluded there was a short-lived outburst of applause, but it was evident that the delegates were in no mood for demonstrations.

Bryan then rose and came to the front of the rostrum. As the speaker went on his voice grew stronger and clearer, and as he narrated the story of his efforts to secure the insertion in the platform of a financial plank the flush of excitement covered his face and his gestures became more frequent and more emphatic. His declaration that the sending of the telegram to Judge Parker was a declaration on the gold standard side, and his statement that if the Democracy was to adopt such a view it should be honest and say so frankly, was greeted with o shriek of applause from the galleries, and one man with a strong voice yelled "That's right."

Ex-Senator Pettigrew interrupted to know if the Parker telegram did not declare that the gold standard was firmly and irrevocably fixed, and was informed that he was correct.

Loud applause greeted Mr. Bryan's remark that it was a manly thing in Judge Parker to express his opinion before the convention adjourned, but that it would have been a manlier thing had he spoken before the convention met, was again cheered. He announced that he would propose an amendment to the message and took his seat, amid loud cries of "vote."

Senator John W. Daniel, chairman of the committee on resolutions was then recognized to reply to Mr. Bryan.

Senator Daniel concluded at 11:17. His speech received hearty applause from the pit where the delegates were seated.

Vociferous cries of "question," "question," followed, but the chair recognized Charles S. Hamlin, of Massachusetts, who urged the sending of the telegram to Judge Parker. Mr. Hamlin said the American people admired a brave man and Judge Parker would be so regarded hereafter by the American people.

As Mr. Hamlin finished it was evident that the delegates were heartily sick of listening to speeches and rapidly losing temper over the constant succession of speakers who mounted the platform, and clamored fiercely for a vote.

The chair recognized Mr. Bryan, who presented an amendment to the reply to Judge Parker as follows:

"But as you will, if elected, be called upon to act upon certain phases on the money question, we would like to know whether you favor reducing the volume of silver dollars; whether you favor an asset currency and branch national banks; whether you prefer national bank currency to United States notes."

Mr. Bryan then proceeded to answer some of the statements made by those who had followed his first address. Great applause followed his assertion that lack of harmony in the party could not be laid at his door.

It was ten minutes after midnight when Mr. Bryan concluded and Representative John Sharp Williams rose. He plunged without preface into a scathing arraignment of Mr. Bryan. Turning from time to time he faced Mr. Bryan, who sat with immobile countenance and fanned himself. His voice trembling, Mr. Williams declared that Mr. Bryan had presented the spectacle of a man pleading for harmony when in all this great convention his had been the only voice of discord. The amendment to the Parker telegram he characterized as "a lot of foolish questions." He spoke sarcastically, with biting humor and great earnestness. In explaining that the telegram from Judge Parker was simply an expression of the judge's own individual opinion, Mr. Williams suddenly wheeled and faced those on the platform and asked: "Suppose we had nominated Bryan on that platform."

"God forbid," ejaculated Richmond P. Hobson, in a loud voice from just behind the speaker.

In explaining his attitude on the absence of a financial plank in the platform, he remarked of the money question: "If it is a trance, it will awake; but if it is dead, I don't want the corpse in my parlor."

Taking up the reply of the convention to Judge Parker's telegram, Mr. Williams read the first sentence—the platform adopted by this convention is silent on the question of the monetary standard. Does any one deny that—even Mr. Bryan?" asked Mr. Williams.

"Take the next sentence," he continued, "because it is not regarded by us as a political issue."

"Does any one in this hall deny that? If there is any one on the floor of this convention who believes the money question an issue in this campaign let him arise in his place."

Not a delegate arose.

"Now let any one on the platform who believes the money question an issue arise." As he said this Mr. Williams turned to Mr. Bryan. But Mr. Bryan kept his seat.

Cries of "question," "question," came so fast that confusion reigned for some minutes. In the confusion an effort was made to make an adjournment motion. This was ruled out of order.

Mr. Bryan sprang to his feet and declared that his delegation was going to support the candidate that New York wanted for vice president and if it would conduce to harmony he would withdraw his amendment to the reply.

A roar of applause followed the announcement. After some debate a roll call was ordered on the question of the adoption of the Williams reply to Judge Parker's message to Mr. Sheehan.

As the roll call proceeded it was evident that the motion to send the message to Judge Parker would be carried by an overwhelming majority. The result was announced to be 774 ayes, 181 noes, and the message was ordered sent by the convention.

Davis Vice President.

The order of business now went back to the point where Governor Vardaman sprung the Parker telegram rumor and the chair directed that the roll should be called on the nomination of a candidate for the vice presidency. The final result of the ballot was unofficially: Williams 165; Turner 100; Davis 654; Harris 68. Iowa did not vote. The nomination of Davis was made unanimous.

Delegate John Lamb, of Indiana, moved that the Democratic national committee be authorized to fill any vacancy that might occur on the national ticket. The motion was adopted.

Chairman Champ Clark and temporary Chairman John Sharp Williams were made respectively chairmen of the committees to notify Judge Parker and ex-Senator Davis of their nomination.

It was also announced that the new national committee would meet in New York on a date to be fixed by the chairman.

Senator McCreary, of Kentucky, presided in the closing moments of the convention.

At 1:30 o'clock Senator McCreary adjourned the convention sine die, the band playing "Auld Lang Syne."

PARKER NOMINATED ON FIRST BALLOT.

Unanimous Choice of Democratic National Convention As Its Candidate for President.

AFTER ALL NIGHT SESSION.

The Vote in Detail—Congratulatory Telegrams Received and Read in the Convention from Candidates Hearst and Dockery.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CONVENTION HALL, ST. LOUIS, MO., July 9, 6:30 A. M.—Judge Alton B Parker, of New York, has been nominated for President. On the completion of the first ballot he received a total of 658 votes. Before the vote was announced Idaho changed her six votes, giving him 664 votes, and West Virginia 8 votes, giving the 667 votes, or two-thirds necessary to a choice.

North Carolina voted solidly for the favorite.

The ballot was as follows:

Alabama, Parker 22; Arkansas, Parker 18; California, Hearst 20; Colorado, Parker 4, Hearst 5, McClellan, 1; Connecticut, Parker 14; Delaware, Gray 6; Florida, Parker 6, Hearst 4; Georgia, Parker 26; Idaho, Hearst 6; Illinois, Hearst 54; Indiana, Parker 30; Iowa, Hearst 26; Kansas, Hearst 10, Parker 7, Miles 2, Cockrell 1; Kentucky, Parker 26; Louisiana, Parker 18; Massachusetts, Olney 32; Maine, Parker 7, Hearst 1, Olney 4; Maryland, Parker 16; Michigan, Parker 28; Minnesota, Parker 9, Hearst 9, Cockrell 1, Towne 2, Gray 1; Mississippi, Parker 20; Missouri, Cockrell 36; Montana, Parker 6; Nebraska, Cockrell 4, Hearst 4, Olney 1, Gray 1, Wall 1; Nevada, Hearst 6; New Hampshire, Parker 8; New Jersey, Parker 24; New York, Parker 78; North Carolina, Parker 24; North Dakota, Williams 8; Ohio, Parker 46.

Oregon, Parker 4, Hearst 2, McClellan 1, Coler 1; Pennsylvania, Parker 8; Rhode Island, Hearst 6, Parker 2; South Carolina, Parker 18; South Dakota: Hearst 8; Tennessee, Parker 24; Texas: Parker 36; Utah, Parker 6; Vermont, Parker 8; Virginia, Parker 24; Washington: Hearst 10; West Virginia: Parker 10, Hearst 2, Gorman 2; Wisconsin: Wall 26; Wyoming: Hearst 6; Alaska: Parker 6; Arizona: Hearst 6; District of Columbia: Parker 6; Indian Territory: Parker 5, Hearst 1; New Mexico: Hearst 6; Hawaii: Hearst 6; Oklahoma: Parker 2, Hearst 2, McClellan 1, Olney 1; Porto Rico: Parker 3, Hearst 4. The election was afterwards made unanimous.

ST. LOUIS, July 9.—Chairman Clark resumed the gavel to-day and at 2:50 o'clock P. M. began his effort to call the convention to order.

The rumor of a recess had spread, and every one was anxious to know the procedure. The delay continued, however, waiting for word from the vice-presidential conference at the Southern Hotel. The band was utilized for entertainment, and got a rousing cheer as it struck up "Dixie."

Rev. John T. Johnston, pastor of the Delmar Avenue Baptist church, was introduced to pronounce the invocation.

Governor Dockery was recognized at the conclusion of the prayer and read a telegram from Senator Cockrell as follows:

"I am sincerely grateful to the Democracy of Missouri for their unsolicited endorsement of me to the nomination to the highest office in the gift of American people and to the delegates appointed by the Joplin convention to present my name to the National Democratic Convention. They have done their whole duty faithfully and sincerely; have discharged every trust imposed by the Joplin convention and have done all possible to be done. I heartily approve their action. The convention has acted wisely in nominating Judge Parker (cheers) a loyal Democrat who voted for Colonel Bryan (cheers) in 1896 and 1900 and is an able jurist and a clean man in all relations of life. F. M. COCKRELL."

Mr. Hopkins, of Illinois, secured recognition for A. M. Lawrence of that State to read a telegram from the platform. The telegram was from William R. Hearst. The reading was warmly applauded. Mr. Hearst's telegram was as follows:

"A M. Lawrence, St. Louis:

"I wish to thank my friends for their unfaltering support. I think I can best express my appreciation of their loyalty by continued devotion to the principles of true Democracy, for which we have fought, and by the loyal support of the man chosen by the convention to lead the Democratic party.

"WILLIAM RANDOLPH HEARST."

Mr. Russell, of Alabama moved that a recess be taken until 5:20 o'clock. Cries of "no, no," were heard from all sides, but Chairman Clark put the motion, when a protest was made that there had been no second.

"Is the motion seconded?" asked Mr. Clark, and amid another general cry of "no, no," and a vigorous protest from over the hall he put the question. The vote was overwhelmingly against the recess, but Mr. Clark declared with a snap and a thump of his gavel that it was carried and at 3:30 the convention was declared in recess for two hours.

We received this week from our factory very nearly 1,000 Umbrellas and are making some special offers on the following styles:

We will sell a lady's 26-inch Umbrella, steel rod, Congo handle and twilled top, absolutely fast black, an extra value at 50c, our price 39c; we have 100 lady's fine Umbrellas, with beautiful handles, equal in style, finish and quality to any $1 Umbrella sold in the city; our price 79c. We have 200 Umbrellas in ladies' styles, the tops made of cabinet cloth, which is warranted by the factory to be absolutely waterproof, positively will not fade, and will outwear any umbrella at any price. The handles are beautiful, made of silver, pearl, gold and oxydized. These umbrellas are cheap at $1.25, our price 98c each. We have finer goods of umbrellas in all sizes for men and ladies We also have a line of large gingham umbrellas, sixteen ribs, 32 inches in size, made for the farmer and the rain, that we are selling at $1 each. They are bread winners when you are caught out in a shower.

In pretty Summer dress goods in lawns, we have received this week one case of beautiful quality in 10c lawns that we are to-day offering at 7½c a yard. We also received case No. 2, a beautiful colored lawn, standard 15c value, that we are offering at 10c a yard. Case No. 3, a lot of pink and blue madras, beautiful mercerized goods, worked through with embroidered dots and goods that sold the first of the season for 25c, we are to-day offering at 10c a yard. They are just about half their value.

Our Millinery Department has just received a big display of white duck hats, a large shipment of new ribbons, a nice line of summer veils. Ladies' hats we have almost by the thousands. In many cases these goods were bought at less than half price, which enables us to sell them at half price. We will have a 25c. sale on hats on Wednesday next, July 13th, and it will last till the hats are gone. We will have on display our 50c. and 75c. hats in shapes, flats and mull hats, all for 25c. each.
